Dr. Neil A. Gordon, M.D., P.C.,

Neil A. Gordon, MD has been honored with and received the Spirit Of Life Award for his many years of continued philanthropic contributions to benefit The City of Hope.

Facial plastic surgeon and noted author, is recognized for his expertise in the most sophisticated techniques in face lifting, eyelid and brow lifting and nose surgery. He appears frequently on television and in the print media to discuss and educate the public about facial plastic surgery.

Dr. Gordon graduated with highest honors from Albert Einstein College of Medicine in New York and completed his internship and residency in Head and Neck Surgery at Yale University School of Medicine. He later earned the very prestigious fellowship in Facial Plastic and Reconstructive surgery at Tulane University.

Dr. Gordon is a Clinical Assistant Professor of Surgery in the Department of Surgery at Yale University School of Medicine where he also serves as Coordinator for Residency Education in the Division of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery.

Dr. Gordon serves as Chairman of The Committee on Patient Safety and Accreditation for The American Academy of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery. He is one of a select few surgeons to achieve double board certification by both The American Board of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery and The American Board of Otolaryngology.

Dr. Gordon is the Director of Medical Services for The New England Surgical Center at The Retreat at Split Rock to provide a unique, all encompassing environment of care, privacy and luxury available to people throughout the world who seeks his services. The Retreat at Split Rock is a short drive from New York City.

Dr. Gordon's recent book, "Your Complete Guide to Facial Rejuvenation" is available nationally. He has offices in both Greenwich, Connecticut and at the Retreat at Split Rock in Wilton, Connecticut.
