

BUSINESS UPDATE

Readers may send information for this column, preferably by e-mail, to Brian Shea at business@wiltonbulletin.com, or to Box 367. Be sure to include a phone number.

O'BRIEN JOINS LANDMARKPRINT

John O'Brien of Spoonwood Road has joined LandmarkPrint as online solutions specialist to help direct and manage the firm's customized web-to-print marketing service.

Mr. O'Brien will be responsible for helping existing and future clients build branded intranet sites to order, manage and distribute their commercial offset and digital printing needs. These customized Web sites are suited to large companies and corporations with multiple locations and users, needing a streamlined supply chain fulfillment system.

Mr. O'Brien has more than 30 years' experience in the printing and technology industries.

"John will be working alongside our experienced account managers, closely analyzing our customers' daily workflow and toughest challenges," said Carmine Iannacchino, a principal partner of LandmarkPrint. "We believe we can create an easier, more streamlined and cost-effective way to manage their graphic communication and marketing needs."

JOHN O'BRIEN

GORDON HOLDS BOOK SIGNING

Dr. Neil A. Gordon will be hosting a book signing and reception to benefit the Domestic Violence Crisis Center that serves Darien, New Canaan, Norwalk, Stamford, Weston, Westport and Wilton on Sunday, Oct. 21, from 2 to 5 at The Retreat at Split Rock at 539 Danbury Road.

Dr. Gordon will be signing his book, Your Complete Guide to Facial Rejuvenation, which outlines everything about facial rejuvenations from how to check a surgeon's qualifications to what type of anesthesia is appropriate for the procedure.

He will also be contributing to the American Academy of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery's charity, Face to Face. The charity offers complimentary counseling and support to victims of domestic abuse.

NEIL GORDON

RESIDENT LEADING BIRD WALK

Luke Tiller of Ingard Lane will be conducting a bird walk at 8 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 20, at Sherwood Island State Park. The fee for the walk is $5 per person, and preregistration is required.

Bird walks during this time of year will aim to find migration specialties such as golden eagle, crowned warbler, and

Christopher Reeb of Lucci Electric, with Annual Dinner on Thursday, Oct. 11. Mr. Reeb gave a speech on how the baseball team has... —Jeff Yates photo

BLUEFISH FOUNDER AD

Chamber ho

BY BRIAN SHEA

"Good business is local business" is the message that Mary Jane Foster, owner, CEO, and cofounder of the Bridgeport Bluefish sent to those who attended the Chamber of Commerce Annual Dinner on Thursday, Oct. 11.

Ms. Foster was the guest speaker at the